Dear Mr. Atwood:

It has come to my attention that the then Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger, created a panel of five State Department officers in 1973 to review the case of Raoul Wallenberg. As a sponsor of the Free Raoul Wallenberg Committee in the United States, I have been compiling information which would shed light on this country's involvement with Mr. Wallenberg, specifically through the War Refugee Board. I would thus be quite interested in obtaining, if possible, any of the materials the 1973 panel may have put together in the course of its work. I would appreciate your assistance in reviewing the State Department's records on this matter and hope to hear from you shortly.

Sincerely,

Daniel Patrick Moynihan
